

Section 3. Legislative, Diplomatic, and Law Enforcement Duties of the President—Continued
The President As Law Enforcer—Continued
Congressional Power Versus Presidential Duty to the Law	594
Myers Versus Morrison	595
Power of the President to Guide Enforcement of the Penal Law	596
The President as Law Interpreter	597
Military Power in Law Enforcement: The Posse Comitatus	598
Suspension of Habeas Corpus by the President	599
Preventive Martial Law	600
The Debs Case	600
Present Status of the Debs Case	601
The President's Duty in Cases of Domestic Violence in the States	602
The President as Executor of the Law of Nations	602
Protection of American Rights of Person and Property Abroad	603
Congress and the President versus Foreign Expropriation	604
Presidential Action In the Domain of Congress: the Steel Seizure Case	605
The Doctrine of the Opinion of the Court	606
The Doctrine Considered	606
Power Denied by Congress	609
Presidential Immunity From Judicial Direction	611
Unofficial Conduct	615
The President's Subordinates	616
Commissioning Officers	617
Section 4. Impeachment	618
Impeachment	618
Persons Subject to Impeachment	619
Judges	619
Judgment—Removal and Disqualification	621
Impeachable Offenses	622
The Chase Impeachment	624
Other Impeachments of Judges	624
The Johnson Impeachment	625
The Nixon Impeachment Proceedings	626
The Clinton Impeachment	628
Judicial Review of Impeachments	631